

History of Lajna Imaillah Ghana

The Journey of Service and Sacrifice

CONTENT

- Founding of Lajna Imaillah
- Introduction in Ghana
- Milestones in Ghana
- Leadership and Contributions
- Achievements
- Challenges and Growth
- Looking Ahead
- Conclusion

Founding of Lajna Imaillah

- Established on December 25, 1922, by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih II (RA).
- Name: Association of Handmaids of Allah.
- First President: Hazrat Amma Jan.

Introduction in Ghana

- Introduced in 1930 by Alhaji Hakeem Fazlur Rahman Sahib.
- Organized further during 1933–1935 by Nazeer Ahmad Ali Sahib.
- Early focus on education and training of women.

Milestones in Ghana

- 1944: Opening of the first women's school in Gold Coast.
- 1952: Kumasi Ashanti Region Council was formalized.
- 1957: First annual meeting held in Salt Pond.
- Foundation of Lajna Hall in Techiman

Leadership and Contributions

- Key leaders: Mukarrama Amina Mubasher, Shamsa Safir, Maryam Wahab Adam.
- Financial contributions for mosque constructions and education.
- Launch of Khadija Magazine in 1989.

Achievements

- Establishment of educational programs.
- Increased participation in national and regional events.
- Financial sacrifices for Tehrik-e-Jadid and mosque constructions.

Challenges and Growth

- Overcoming barriers to women's education and participation.
- Growth in membership and activities across regions
- Financial Sacrifices

Looking Ahead

- Continued focus on education and empowerment.
- Strengthening ties with international Lajna Imaillah.

Conclusion

- The establishment of Lajna Imaillah was a revolutionary step for women, which set them on the path of serving faith and progress.